ORDER:

Government of Andhra Pradesh has taken up Jalayagnam Programme during 2004-2005 to provide additional Irrigation facilities in the backward and drought prone areas of the State,. There is a need for proper scrutiny and monitoring of technical matters related to the Jalayagnam programme. There is also an imperative need to have functionaries in place at Government level to objectively assess the technicalities of the Major and Medium projects under progress, and guide the field Engineers in proper direction towards achieving the targets, and to realize the benefits as envisaged.

2. In view of the above position, it has been decided to appoint an advisor to advice the Government on all technical matters relating to completion of new Major and Medium Irrigation Projects in Telangana Region. Accordingly, the Government hereby appoint Sri J.Satyanand, I/c Chief Engineer (Retd) as Advisor on contract basis, to advice the Government on all Technical matters relating to Irrigation Projects of Telangana Region for a period of three months with effect from the date of joining with a remuneration of last pay drawn minus pension without applying the terms and conditions mentioned in G.O.Ms.No.145, Fin. (PSC) Dept., Dt. 16-10-2000 subject to extendable to one year.

3. The Engineer-in-Chief (AW), I&CAD Department, Hyderabad / the Irrigation ( PW.OP -Claims) Department are requested to take further necessary action in the matter.

4. This order issues with the Concurrence of Finance (PSC) Deptt., vide their U.O No. 32854/299/PSC/2013, dated:28.5.2013.
